DEDICATION '60

James B. Hawley—Professor of Mathematics, advisor to students, and distinguished educator for more than thirty years—it is eminently suitable that we, the staff of the 1960 Maroon and Gold, dedicate this yearbook to him who holds so warm a spot in everyone's heart.

Mr. Hawley attended Kimball Union Academy, Meriden, New Hampshire, graduating in 1910, and from there went to Dartmouth College, Hanover, New Hampshire, class of 1914. In 1916 he received his Master's Degree from Columbia University, New York City. He came to the Wardlaw School in 1955, bringing with him many years of invaluable experience from teaching in high schools in various cities on the Eastern seaboard.

Mr. Hawley has the rare talent of making his mathematics courses interesting and "fun" because of his unique sense of humor. No student who has squeezed into Mr. Hawley's "Fox Hole" will ever forget mathematics or "the Schemer!"

We are happy to have this opportunity to publicly recognize Mr. Hawley's great contribution to all of us at Wardlaw, and we hope in this fashion to show how much we all love our "Mr. Chips."

Scheming!

Mr. Gregori Lebedev 195 Woodbridge Avenue Metuchen, N.J.

Dear Mr. Lebedev:

Your letter of January 21st requesting information about James B. Hawley has been turned over to this office for a reply- $\,$

I am sorry to say that our Alumni files prior to 1936 are quite sketchy, and we do not have on file a copy of any report cards for Mr. Hawley. He attended KUA from 1906-1910, graduating in 1910.

He has been a most loyal alumnus and is responsible for the James B. Hawley Award. Spencer J. Hawley, deceased, of the Class of 1909, left a small sum of money to be awarded for excellence of work in English. The money was used to purchase a silver plaque provided by James R. Hawley, and is awarded each year to that member of the Junior Class who does the best work in English.

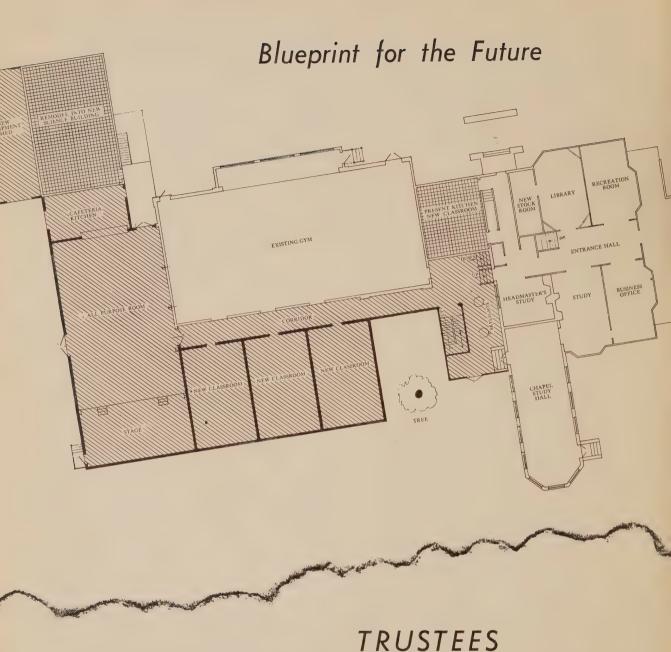

I am enclosing an award certificate with the school emblem on it. If there is any other way in which we can help, please do not hesitate to call upon us.

Sincerely yours,

WRF/a encl.

As the new era at Wardlaw approached, a revised system of gove

As the new era at Wardlaw approached, a revised system of government had to be inaugurated. To control the activities of the revamped institution, a Board of Trustees, consisting of fifteen men, was selected as a governing body.

The first step taken by the trustees was to purchase the school from its owner, Mr. C. Digby Wardlaw, now headmaster emeritus. After this transaction, Mr. Prentice C. Horne was appointed as the new headmaster. Then came innovations affecting both the faculty and the students.

The effects of this new system at Wardlaw are fully appreciated and will be even more pronounced when the planned extension of the school becomes a reality. From the progress made by this committee in its first year, it seems that the future of the Wardlaw Country Day School, Incorporated, is brighter and more promising than ever.

The Hornes

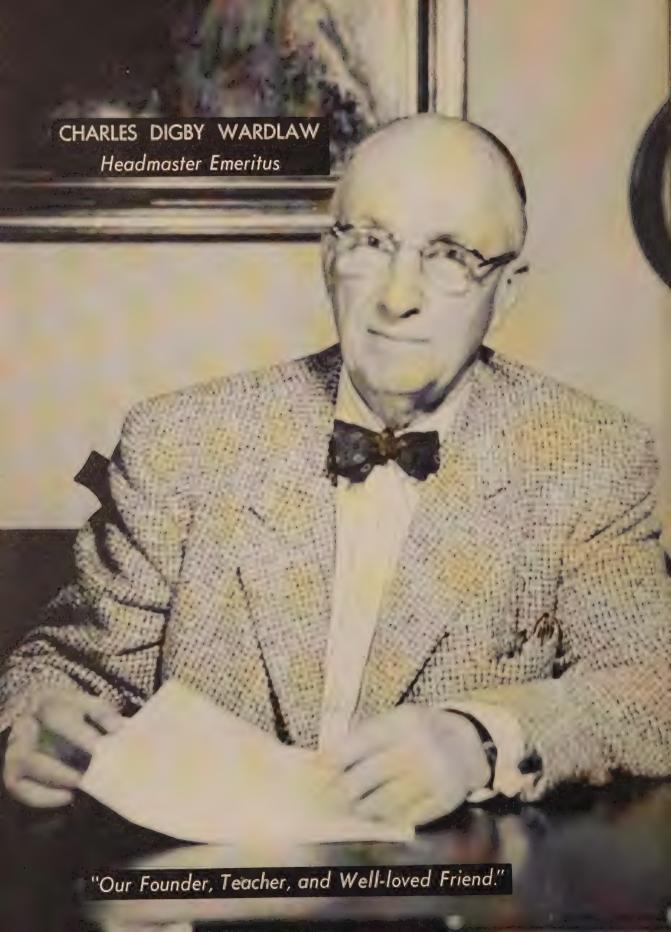

Ski Instructor, Deerfield Academy-1958

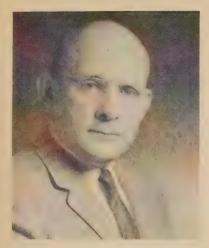

When the Wardlaw School changed its administration, it seemed appropriate for a Wardlaw alumnus to direct this fine institution. The man who stepped forward and assumed this leadership is Mr. Prentice C. Horne, a graduate of Deerfield Academy and Amherst College.

In 1941 the Navy called him to duty, and at the close of the war, he went back to Deerfield, this time as an instructor and administrator, a position he held for fourteen years.

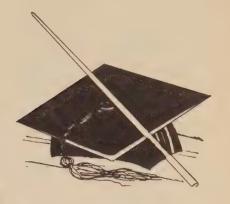

In August of 1959, the trustees of the newly organized Wardlaw Country Day School were fortunate in having Mr. Horne accept the position of headmaster. Along with this change came others, and a new, different, and improved policy for the school was inaugurated. This new era is in the capable hands of our popular Mr. Horne, whose guidance means a brighter outlook for the future of Wardlaw students.

The 1960 Seniors are about to embark on another leg of their journey of life. The Wardlaw School has tried to prepare them well for this adventure, and while all have had to conform to prescribed academic requirements, they have remained individuals, anxious to find out what lies beyond the horizon.

There is room in this progressive world for all kinds of minds, interests and abilities, and our seniors encompass a wide range of aptitudes. We find the visionary, the athlete, and the dilettante, as well as the leader, the scholar, and the "hail-fellow-well-met." In one way or another, they all will find their places where they can contribute to this ever changing society.

Wardlaw has given these boys the fundamentals, and now it is up to them to continue their growth in their individual ways, as they become "TRAVELERS IN A BRAVE NEW WORLD . . . ".

"The B.M.O.C."

I, Gary N. Taylor, will to "Mr. Bruce" my passionate love for females, and to some fortunate member of the Junior Class, "Machine Rule."

The JUNIOR CLASS, approaching the crucial year of its high school era, views "the world as its oyster!" Already, many juniors hold key positions in school activities and on athletic teams; they also have many representatives on the honor roll. Because of their varied interests and responsibilities, great things are expected of this class by 1961, the year of graduation!

Although the SOPHOMORE CLASS is quite small, it is well represented on all athletic teams on the varsity level. In addition, one sophomore is a member of the Student Council, while several others are on the staff of the yearbook and newspaper, as well as being listed among those on the honor roll.

The FRESHMAN CLASS is outstanding; not only is it the largest in Wardlaw's history, but many of its members have taken an active part in all phases of school activity. It boasts the largest number of boys on the honor roll, is well represented on the two school publications, and all members take an active part in the high school athletic program. To round out their diversified interests, this freshman group is very socially minded as is evidenced by their regular attendance at the high school dances.

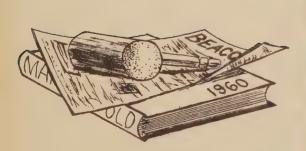

As one views the well-rounded secondary education being given the underclassmen of the Wardlaw Country Day School, its academic program nicely balanced with extra-curricular activities, it is easy to see that these boys, who all too soon will be competing in this rapidly changing world, will leave Wardlaw "WITH EYES OPEN READY FOR THE RACE".

. . . Kaleidoscope . . .

The 1959 Maroon and Gold was Wardlaw's first yearbook to be entered in the Columbia Scholastic Press Association competition, emerging with a "First Place" citation, earning 873 out of a possible 1000 points. This accomplishment certainly deserves the acclaim of all.

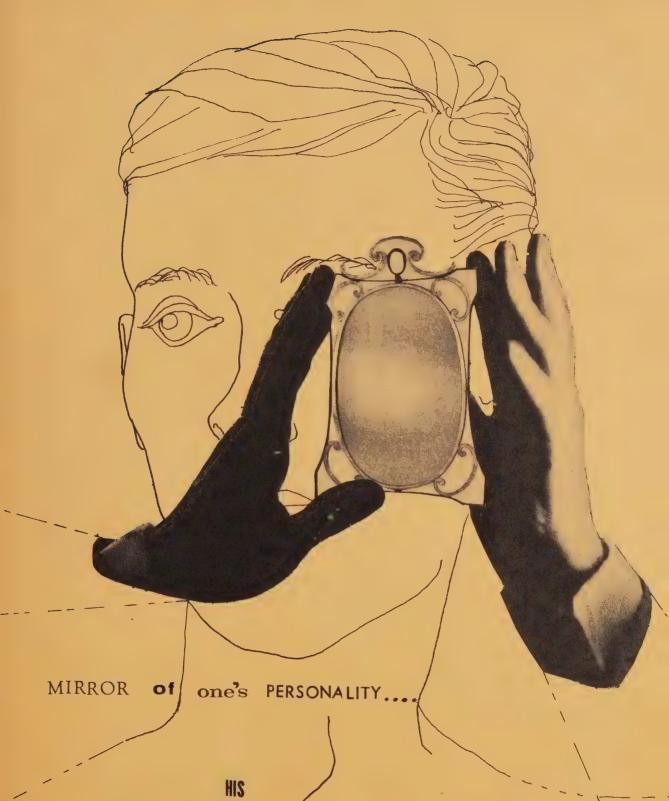

"Cast your cockeyed gleamers on that one, gentlemen . . ."

A notable "first" in Wardlaw history was the appearance of "El Cristal de Reloj", a lively little news sheet, edited and published by the five boys of Mr. Vietor's Spanish III class, pictured left. activities

The SENIOR STUDENT COUNCIL is made up of boys representing the four high school classes, with Headmaster Prentice Horne in the capacity of advisor. This year's group under the leadership of its President, Gary Taylor, has surpassed all previous Wardlaw student councils in its record of achievements for the school as well as for the student body.

Most outstanding was the cash donation to the Board of Trustees, amounting to nearly half the cost of painting the interior of the gymnasium, a long deferred, but badly needed project. The purchase of a duplicating machine for the benefit of the school was also of great value and will be of much help for many years to come. The council's usual activities, such as sponsoring the athletic dinners, and arranging for the formal and informal dances were part of its regular agenda for the year. It also sponsored the Curtis magazine campaign, which was comparatively successful.

The entire Senior Student Council for 1959-1960 has evidenced steadfastness and devotion to school government and leadership.

The school newspaper, the BEACON, which appears at intervals throughout the year is the third in a series of news publications, beginning with the "Wardlaw News" which appeared during the early 1930's. In 1939 the Wardlaw students published their second news sheet, "The Wardlawsun", which survived until 1948, and the Beacon, the present journal, was begun in 1953.

In June of 1959, the Beacon drastically altered its format changing from a mimeographed "do-it-yourself" newspaper to one which is professionally printed, and carries advertising. The success of the Beacon is due, in great part, to Mrs. Clelia Saflund, its indefatigable advisor.

The yearbook of the Wardlaw School has had a checkered career, appearing only fourteen times in the seventy-eight years of the school's existence. The first annual, "The Wardlaw Press Board", was published in 1917, but there was no yearbook produced from then until 1948, when it re-appeared at Wardlaw as the MAROON AND GOLD.

The 1960 Maroon and Gold is unique in the fact that its Editor-in-Chief, Gregori Lebedev, along with three members of the yearbook "Board" are from the Junior Class.

This year's yearbook is the first to be published under the aegis of the Wardlaw Country Day School, and it is the aim of this year's annual to present a new and progressive Wardlaw School.

EXPLANATORY NOTE: The cover of this yearbook is of imported Italian silk.

The Wardlaw Upper School is a proving ground for various activities—the boy gets a taste of government, he tries his hand at business and achieves satisfaction on a journalistic and artistic plane—all of these pursuits give depth to the "... MIRROR OF ONE'S PERSONALITY ...".

FIRST HONOR R O L L

LONELY CO

It is indeed a great distinction to be associated with the First Honor Roll, especially since new and higher standards have been inaugurated during this past year. It is particularly noteworthy that only two boys in the entire Upper School, Gary N. Taylor, and G. Michael Blazo, have consistently achieved this enviable position.

An achievement of considerable merit for a high school student is to be named among those on the second honor roll. A scholastic average of 85 must be attained if one is to qualify for this singular distinction. However, the boys pictured on this page, do not constitute all the students who have achieved this honor during the entire year; but as time is the governing factor in the production of an annual, we have pictured only those boys who made the second honor roll at least two out of the first three marking periods of the school year. It is to these, and the others not pictured, that the staff of the 1960 Maroon and Gold extends its sincere congratulations.

SOCIAL

"All work and no play . . ." certainly does not apply to Wardlaw, where dances and social events are recognized as an integral part of "growing up". The Senior Student Council sponsored all the dances but were assisted unsparingly by the Mothers' Association at Christmas and Commencement time. A large part of the success of these affairs was due to Dave Jeppesen, chairman of the decoration committee, who devised such various motifs as "Autumn Scene", "Balloon Evening", and "Spring at Wardlaw". The Christmas Dance, a "Winter Spectacle", was an unusual success, partly because the music was provided by professional musicians instead of the "pop" records used at all the informal gatherings.

ATHLETICS

Through "... physical education and systematized athletics the body is brought to that higher development in which muscular co-ordination and sound health become the faithful allies of an alert mind."

VARSITY SOCCER

This year's Varsity Soccer team had one of its best seasons in recent years. The squad compiled a record of six wins, four losses, and one tie, and was successfully led by its captain, LeRoy Gunzelman, and high scorer Gary Taylor. One of the best games of its schedule was played against a well-seasoned Springfield Regional team, considered by many to be one of the strongest in this area. It was a hard-fought battle, and required an overtime period before Regional won by a one point margin. Coach Ralph Harris' 1961 eleven should be even better, since very few players will be lost by the June graduation.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Varsity Basketball squad had only mediocre success during the 1960 competitions, ending its season with a record of five wins and nine losses. This tally, however, does not give a true picture of the team's real ever, does not give a not protected or life same potential; several games were lost by the slim margin of four or five points. Coach Robert Vietor's squad should have more success next year, as he will have nearly three-fourths of this year's team returning, along with several promising boys from the "J.V." roster, who will be eligible to play on the varsity level.

SQUASH

Added to the winter athletic calendar this year was Squash, with nine boys turning out, under the competent coaching of Mr. Ralph Harris. In spite of the fact that only three of the players had had any previous experience with this game, excellent progress was made, and after only three weeks of practice, Coach Harris and Captain Robert Hellerson were able to schedule four competitive matches.

The first encounter was with Pingry, which Wardlaw lost 3 to 2. Next the squad traveled to Heightstown to play Peddie, but again Wardlaw was unsuccessful, losing 4 to 1. A strong Chestnut Hill Academy group was Ward 4 to 1. A strong Chestrut fill Academy group was ward-law's third foe. Playing at our home court, the Plainfield Country Club, the visitors triumphed 4 to 1. Coach Harris' limited schedule ended well, however, as Wardlaw defeated Peddie by a score of 3 to 2 in a return match on the Maroon's home court.

VARSITY BASEBALL

The 1960 Varsity Baseball team should enjoy an even better season than it did last year. Since most of the 1959 squad has returned, this year's "ball club" will profit by having experienced players. There are also several excellent prospects from last year's Junior Varsity squad who have a good chance of making the lineup. Coach Michael Blazo, a seasoned veteran of the professional baseball wars, is very optimistic about his team's chances; in fact, he is hoping for an undefeated season

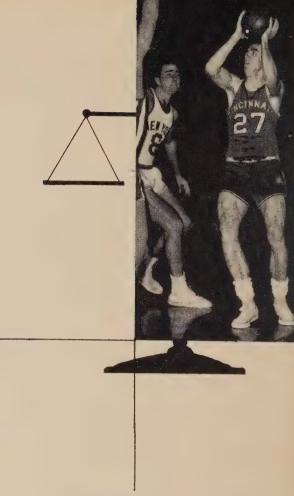

JUNIOR VARSITY SOCCER
The Junior Varsity Soccer team did not enjoy the same success as did their varsity counterparts during the 1960 schedule. The "J.V.'s" finished their season with five wins, three losses, and one tie. One should remember, however, that the main purpose of the Junior Varsity team is not entirely to win games, but rather to prepare boys for Mr. Harris' varsity. The experience given the newcomers, plus the support of the seasoned veter-ans, will probably bring success to next year's squad.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Junior Varsity Basketball aggregation was also unfortunate in its efforts at a winning season; however, several boys showed definite promise of becoming fine basketball players, and it is these aspirants that should be able to rise to the varsity team next year, and give a good account of themselves.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASEBALL

The 1960 Junior Varsity Baseball team is confident of a successful season. Several hopeful candidates coming up from Mr. Breene's Junior team, coupled with the boys of last year's squad, should form the nucleus around which Coach Robert Vietor should be able to build a winning "J.V." baseball team.

SPRING SPORTS . . . 1959

Until this year, it has been impossible for the editors of this annual to have the current year's baseball teams represented in the yearbook. In the past, it has been the policy to hold over the baseball section until the following year. Because the 1960 Maroon and Gold is doing away with this practice, it is essential to include both the 1959 and 1960 write-ups in this section of the

VARSITY BASEBALL

The 1959 Varsity Baseball team enjoyed one of its best seasons in recent years. Coach Michael Blazo showed considerable skill during his first year as varsity head coach, when his squad compiled a record of eight wins, and two losses. Almost all of this team will be returning in 1960 and will form an experienced core around which Coach Blazo will mold a well-drilled varsity nine.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASEBALL

The 1959 Junior Varsity Baseball squad was unable to emulate Coach Blazo's Varsity, either in action or results. Its brief season ended with a one win, four loss total, which was somewhat of a letdown from their winning performance during the 1958 schedule. Coaches Robert Vietor and Robert Fulton were very optimistic in looking forward to 1960, as very few of their "regulars" were graduated.

TENNIS

Last year's tennis players did not enter into any com-petitive play, other than intramural clashes. Coach Thomas Roberts felt that his 1959 group was not experienced enough for interscholastic contests and tournaments. However, he attempted to ground his players thoroughly in the fundamentals of tennis, with the expectation that the coming year might bring forth a tennis team ready for outside competition.

The past athletic year did not produce as many victories as we of Wardlaw would have liked, but remembering that winning the game is not all—that playing the game well is just as important—we feel that Wardlaw's teams have profited by this athletic competition leading to the essential"... BALANCE OF BODY AND MIND...".

MARDLAW

This year a new sport, Varsity Cross Country, under the guidance of Coach M. Gale Hoffman, was added to Wardlaw's fall athletic docket. Outstanding among those representing the Maroon at the meets were Walter Ritchie, and Captain Tom Stevens, the fastest and most consistent runners of this new team. Coach Hoffman's group ran well in its first contest against the PLAINFIELD HIGH SCHOOL SOPHOMORES, although losing the meet, 22 to 33. In a triangle meet at MONT-CLAIR COLLEGE HIGH SCHOOL, Wardlaw placed SECOND, a fine showing against long established opponents. In the next to the last meet of their schedule, the varsity held another contest with the PLAINFIELD HIGH SCHOOL SOPHOMORES, but could not outdistance their foes, losing by the score of 21 to 34.

The season closed with the STATE MEET at BORDENTOWN where Wardlaw, with 198 points placed EIGHTH in the final reckoning. Walter Ritchie's performance was outstanding, placing nineteenth in a field of fifty-five contestants in the cross country race. As track has engendered great interest at Wardlaw, it is expected that many more boys will participate in the 1961 season which has a most encouraging outlook.

The third new sport introduced at Wardlaw, which has been accepted with great enthusiasm, is Varsity Wrestling, coached very ably by Mr. Harold Breene. The future of wrestling at Wardlaw is a bright one although this year's "matmen" were unable to carry home as many triumphs as hoped because they lacked experience.

In the Varsity's first match of the season, it encountered the ST. BERNARD'S VARSITY, and Wardlaw emerged with a 23 to 15 victory over the wrestlers from Peapack-Gladstone. This taste of success was short-lived, however, and Wardlaw's wrestlers proceeded to lose their four remaining matches, beginning with the PINGRY JUNIOR VARSITY by a score of 42 to 10, MONTCLAIR ACADEMY to the tune of 15 to 33, and ENGLEWOOD ACADEMY, 23 to 15, thus ending their first season of competition sporting a one-win and four-

This tally, however, does not give a true picture of Wardlaw's first interscholastic competition, as on several occasions they were forced to forfeit valuable points, as they had no squad members weighing in at specific weight levels. Coach Breene was considerably pleased with his team's showing, since his boys did, in his estimation, an admirable job against squads with several years of wrestling experience behind them. All of us at Wardlaw look for big things from Mr. Breene's "matmen" when the 1961 season rolls around.

In 1960, tennis once again rose into the ranks of a Wardlaw varsity sport, coached by M. Gale Hoffman, and captained by Robert Hellerson.

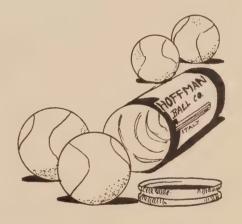

A schedule of seven matches was gotten, besides being entered in the STATE MEET at LAWRENCEVILLE. Wardlaw's opponents included such teams as ENGLEWOOD, PEDDIE, PINGRY, ST. BERNARD'S, and their age old foe COLLEGIATE of New York City.

A gratifying large turnout has shown the popularity of tennis at Wardlaw, and has resulted in both a varsity and junior team. However, poor weather conditions hindered the preparation of our own courts, and so Coach Hoffman was forced to transfer his squads to the Cedar Brook Park courts for the first several weeks of the season.

Other than Captain Bob Hellerson, none of the 1960 varsity tennis team has had any practical tournament experience under his belt, but as the season progresses, Coach Gale Hoffman hopes to develop his singles and doubles teams into well-drilled combinations.

MIDDLE

The sixth, seventh, and eighth grades make up the Wardlaw MIDDLE SCHOOL, headed most successfully for many years by Miss Marion Kilpatrick. This is a three year transitional period which helps the boy bridge the gap between the elementary child, and the more mature secondary student. It is in this intermediate period that the growing boy may "try his wings" with confidence, guided by the excellent Middle School faculty.

JUNIOR STUDENT COUNCIL

The governing organization of Wardlaw's Middle and Lower Schools, known as the Junior Student Council, is made up of seven members from the sixth, seventh, and eighth grades, each representing his class in school affairs.

This year's Junior Council advisor has been Headmaster Mr. Prentice Horne, under whose guidance the Council has undertaken such tasks as the running of dances and maintaining the cloakroom for the Mothers' Bridge.

Sports, dances, lessons, and friendly gatherings—these are typical of the Middle Schooler, and at Wardlaw all go into "SHAPING A BETTER WORLD..."

FIRST HONOR ROLL Frederick R. Horne, II

MIDDLE SCHOOL HONOR ROLL

In the Middle School, to be on the first honor roll, is the ultimate goal for which all serious students strive. An average of 92 must be maintained by the ambitious middle schooler, and during this school year, Frederick R. Horne, II, sixth grade, was the only boy in the entire group to receive this accolade consistently.

The Middle School second honor roll, with its required scholastic average of 85, and to these boys also, much commendation is due. To all these students, continued success in scholastic achievement:

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

The 1959 Junior Football season was very disappointing to both Coach Harold Breene and his squad. Unfortunately, they weren't able to approach the splendid performance of the previous year, and many of the new players were suffering from lack of playing experience. Their final record of two wins, three losses, and one tie, was not good enough to retain the North Jersey Little Ivy League football trophy which Wardlaw had held successfully for the past three seasons.

JUNIOR SOCCER

This is the first year that Wardlaw has fielded a soccer team on the junior level. Coached by Mr. Ralph Harris, and Mr. Robert Vietor, the squad had a very brief season of only three games. In their first contest the Wardlaw Juniors lost to FAR HILLS by the score of 1-0, but in their second game, playing against MONTCLAIR ACADEMY, Wardlaw emerged with a 2 to 1 edge. The final game of the season, in a return match against FAR HILLS, the Juniors were forced to settle for a 0 to 0 tie. This early soccer training will prove invaluable when these boys progress to Mr. Harris' Varsity Soccer team.

JUNIOR BASKETBALL

Junior Basketball for this past year proved to be the most successful of the Junior Sports for 1959-1960. Although Coach Ralph Harris' Juniors did not emerge with a winning season, they did place second in the N.J.L.I.L. competition by virtue of a four-win, one-loss league record, which is certainly a feather in Mr. Harris' cap, as this is his first year coaching Junior Basketball.

JUNIOR BASEBALL

Coach Harold Breene is facing a difficult job in organizing a winning Junior Baseball team for 1960. Most of last year's lettermen have progressed to Upper School athletics, leaving Mr. Breene only a small nucleus, along with "green" material, with which he hopes to launch a successful baseball campaign.

1959 JUNIOR BASEBALL

The 1959 Junior Baseball team played "fairly well", according to Coach Harold Breene. Although at the beginning of the season many of the players were not too well-versed in baseball fundamentals, Mr. Breene soon molded these boys into a successful "ball club", ending their season with a five-win and three-loss tally.

Sports are considered as essential a part of the Middle School, as is its excellent academic program. Not all boys participate in all sports, but whether carrying a football down the field or applauding a base hit, the Wardlaw boys learn that "WATCHING . . . AS MUCH A SPORT AS PARTICIPATION . . . ".

Kindergarten, First, and Second Grades are of vital importance at Wardlaw, because it is in these early years that the child is introduced to school and school work. The direction which he takes in these early years will have a definite bearing on the remainder of his educational life.

The KINDERGARTEN, under the leadership of Mrs. Elizabeth Schanz, is more than a "play time" for the youngsters, but in actuality is a preparation for the work which will come in the first grade. Mrs. Schanz brings a wide background of educational knowledge to her work; she taught in the English school system for several years.

Mrs. Mildred Lum, Head of the Lower School, is also the very able FIRST GRADE instructor. She presents to her boys a carefully worked out curriculum, and under her watchful tutelage, students are able to learn to read earlier and with greater comprehension than in the majority of public schools.

The Wardlaw SECOND GRADE, under Mrs. Helen Grant, is a continuation of and also a branching out from the work started under Mrs. Lum in the First Grade. Besides reading and arithmetic, special projects suitable to the interests of the six to eight year old child are presented during the course of the school year.

Mrs. Edith Thomas presides over the THIRD GRADE, whose daily work has become more inclusive than the preceding grades. The intellectual curiosity of the third grader is channeled toward many constructive activities. The Third Grade is also the first time that the Lower School boy is introduced to a vigorous athletic program on an intramural basis. Coaches Harold Breene, Ralph Harris, and Michael Blazo organize this physical training period, and present to the boys the ideals of "fair play", as well as basic physical education.

The boys of the FOURTH GRADE, growing older, livelier, and wiser, are under the able supervision of Mrs. Margaret Smith, who offers these boys a wider curriculum to meet their expanding interests and energies. The fourth graders, as did those boys of Mrs. Thomas' Third Grade, participate in the excellent sports program offered by Wardlaw at the Lower School level.

Miss Helen Kershner teaches the "top" class in the Lower School, the FIFTH GRADE. In addition to the regular courses which she offers to this age boy,

> LOWER SCHOOL

Miss Kershner has added a special year-long project, an imaginative trip around the world, which introduces her boys to a variety of subjects and new vistas of learning.

As the boys "graduate" from the Lower School, they progress into Junior athletics, and a more adult atmosphere in classroom study.

Days are very full in the Lower School—reading, numbers, learning to write, history, geography, an introduction to music by Mr. Arthur Schroff, art by Mrs. Schanz, and the rudiments of public speaking presented by Mrs. Clelia Saflund—all these create a diversified atmosphere for the Wardlaw Lower School.

There is much to be learned, experienced, and explored—and for the boys of the Lower School "THIS IS THE BEGINNING...".

In Appreciation

The staff of the 1960 Maroon and Gold is fully cognizant of the many hours unstintingly given by our faculty advisors, without whom it would have been impossible to compile this record—Mr. Ralph C. Harris, whose "candid camera" has caught the flavor of our day-by-day school life; Mr. Robert B. Vietor, who, in the thankless job of Financial Advisor has been a stern conscience; Mrs. Jane Smith, and Mrs. Mildred Little, who tirelessly have guided our thoughts, and corrected our errors; and also, Miss Kathleen Kazlau, a friend of the school, whose artistic efforts have tied this annual together—it is to these persons, caricatured below, that we express our sincere thanks and heartfelt appreciation.
